AWCI Celebrates 50 years!

We are looking for someone to represent our Guild at the golden anniversary annual AWCI Conference and Educational Symposium, August 4-8, 2010 in Cincinnati, Ohio. The host hotel is the Marriott at River Center, just across the Ohio River from downtown Cincinnati. If you are interested in representing the Guild at this Conference, please let David Arnold know.

Congratulations to David Douglas for being elected to the AWCI Board of Directors. David will be officially inducted as an AWCI Board member at the Annual Conference.

Watch Shop Sale:

Mike Hutton is selling his father's watch shop. His father is C. F. Hutton and was with Carl Mayer and then Joe Koen for years.

Equipment includes bench, vibrograph timing machine, stake set, lathe and complete set of inserts, ultrasonic cleaning machine, all kinds of stuff in drawers, crystal cabinet, other boxes of crystals, two boxes of glass crystals, crowns, stems, staffs, mainsprings, case tubes, gaskets, movements, and pieces of movements, and many other things.

The shop is located in Lakeway. You may contact Mike at 512-431-5164.

Treasurer's Report:

Education Fund:

$10,170.55

Operating Fund:

$4,612.92

Pok-E-Jo's is located at 2121 Parmer Lane between Metric and Mopac in North Austin.

News:

Education:

Six students attended the Pocket Watch Class in Lockhart last month. It was a very good class.

New Business:

Our Librarian, Luther Lucko, has a wonderful source of books, DVDs and articles on just about anything clock related.

Don't forget to bring door prizes!

Have you been collecting batteries? If so, please bring them to our meeting and give them to Mary Ellen.
