News:

From your President:

Our annual auction has come and gone. Thanks to all who attended!

News:

Education:

Mary Ellen will be in Switzerland and France Aug and Sept 2 weeks. Possible class in late October or Early November.

David Douglas: Class 4.5 people. Another class will be held later in the year to catch those who missed out this time around.

RE: Donation for Museum

Dennis moved and Rob seconded that we donate $100 to the Southwest Museum of Clocks and Watches in Lockhart for use of its space for the watch class.

News:

1. Congratulations to Adam Kantz for passing the AWCI exam the first time around!
2. Our annual auction was held at Cutty's church on May 7.
3. Chapter 15's annual meeting was held in San Antonio on May 14th.
4. Texas Watchmaker Association Cloth Embroidered Banner was found by Cully and was suggested that we donate it to the Museum. It moved, seconded and passed. As Gene was absent tonight, the banner was given to Don Bugh so he could photograph it for his book TWA book.
5. Luther – ordered some tweezers not Dumont - #12. $13.25 each will break even on the cost. Moved that the guild buy the tweezers, seconded by David Douglas. At cost and resell them at $15.00 each. Motion passed. All 12 were sold at the meeting. Move was made, seconded and passed to order an additional 12 tweezers to be sold to class attendees.
